33rd Annual Bull Sale

Saturday April 4th, 2015
Hub City Livestock, Aberdeen SD
Sale Time 1:00 pm

74 Yearling Bulls Including Red Factor
4 Fall Bulls
25 Open Charolais Heifers
100 Charolais Cross Replacement Heifers

Official home of the “Bling Tag”
Dear Friends and Customers,

It is sale time once again! Welcome to Wells Charolais 33rd Annual Bull Sale. What a year this has been! Never before have we seen cattle prices this high! This calls for us to increase our calf weights to the max to increase our profit. We believe this bull offering can do that job for you with their genetics. They have all gained well themselves this past year. They are big, stout bulls; ready to go to work.

We will again be offering 25 open registered heifers picked from our replacement pen. We want to offer you our best. These heifers have the same genetics as the bulls to pass on to their offspring.

New this year will be the offering of 100 Charolais cross buck skinned heifers. These heifers have been sired by our bulls and other top Charolais bulls in the country. They will make an excellent foundation herd.

We invite you to stop by the ranch anytime to inspect our offering, or better yet, hope to see you at the sale, April 4th, 2015

Sincerely,
Wells Charolais

PLEASE NOTE:

All bulls and heifers can be kept until May 1st, free of charge. Starting May 1st you will be charged $2.75 a day for boarding and feeding cost.

We deliver most animals free of charge depending on mileage and route. No distance is too far for us to work something out!

We are willing to work with you to get your bull(s) and /or heifer(s) to you, with our trailer or yours.

GUARANTEE:
We back each bull in this sale. Each bull is, to the best of our knowledge, sound and a breeder. The bulls are guaranteed to breed under NATURAL CONDITIONS. We reserve the right to test any bull returned to us as non-breeder for ninety days. (Returned bulls are done so at buyers expense) Should the bull be deemed sound by a licensed veterinarian, he will be turned to the buyer, also at the buyers expense. If an adjustment is required, it will be made with a replacement of equal value to the bull in question or credit on the purchase of another bull. Adjustments must be requested within six months of the sale day of the bull. Once an animal is in a buyer’s care, we would expect the buyer to care for that animal(s) as we would. Animals not properly cared for will be at buyer’s risk and therefore; the above guarantee will not stand.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:
Announcements from the auction block will take precedence over any other advertising or material in this catalog.

BIDDING:
Each lot will be sold to the highest bidder.

TERMS:
The terms of the sale are cash. Checks will be accepted. Make payable to Hub City Livestock.

DISPUTED BIDS:
The auctioneer will settle any tie bids or disputed bids according to their best judgement.

LIABILITY:
Everyone attending the sale does so at their own risk. Wells Charolais, and Hub City Livestock assume no liability, legal or otherwise, for accidents which may occur. We will do our best to make sale day enjoyable.

So to understand what is being read here, one has to first understand that when cattle are brought down from Canada and put into the AICA database, that animals EPD’s are rolled over to a zero across the entire EPD scale. Then that animal has to build progeny under them in order to raise their EPD’s. But don’t take my word for it; I have listed the registration numbers so anyone can look for themselves. I suggest anyone in the market for a new herd sire for their herd to not base their decision off of what the EPD’s read. In the situation with Reliance, they are not accurate. I would however suggest coming to our ranch and taking a walk through the herd. Look at the Reliance daughters in production. Reliance daughters have excellent maternal traits. They have done a wonderful job packing a punch on a set of calves. On the Canadian paper you can clearly see that Reliance has a lot to offer, but on the American side, you see something totally different. Until this issue is resolved from one Association to another, my biggest suggestion is: “Look at the cattle with your own eyes” What has that pedigree produced? See the calves out of that sire. Sometimes numbers on paper are wrong and we have to rely on the old way of evaluating a set of calves. Eyeball them!! Remember: All Canadian Progeny is handled the same way.

I think without giving any more EPD examples, everyone is seeing a pattern perfectly clear here. Reference sites: www.charolaisusa.com and www.charolais.com

We have used Cowboy on Heifers with great success. He has sired excellent bulls and females with lots of color.

Don't let him being dehorned scare you away from the thickest red bull in the sale! Coming out of a Platinum daughter and the 128 cow family, he has a lot to offer. Calving ease, performance, color, muscle, and scrotal all in one! Retaining 1/2 Semen Interest

RU Rodeo will give you growth from birth to weaning and after that expect his calves to top the scales just like all other Platinums' before him have.

RU Rodeo is the thickest red polled bull in the sale! Notice his age and gaining 5 lbs per day. He is solid red in color and solid as a rock!

Red Factor Charolais

We have chosen to offer red factor Charolais genetics for certain reasons. The most important reason was to add color.

A lot of our customers have been demanding the red Charolais to use on their Red Angus, Red Angus X Simmental or Charolais cross cows to keep the color in their calves. They wanted too keep the color in their calves for two reasons. One is to hold the color in thier replacement heifer pen and the other reason is the steer calves would bring more dollars when sold at the auction market. We have seen the demand for color so we decided to supply it. Now, keep in mind, to those people who have black cows you will get red calves, but you could also end up with some black calves; however, we will keep raising the red factor Charolais because the demand doesn't seem to be slowing down anytime soon!
