CONFERENCE HONOREE

ALEX BULLARD

By: Samantha Corn

The influence a person has on others typically isn't felt until after they are gone. This cannot be said about the impact that Alex Bullard made on those around him. Though his time was short, he left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered even before his untimely passing. His "larger-than-life" presence and even bigger smile were defining traits for him and will forever be a reminder of the impression he left on this world. Alex's kindness spoke volumes towards his character, and his ability to make others feel seen and understood truly set him apart.

A 27-year-old whose love for cattle and the agriculture community grew similarly to most, he exhibited steers for several years before beginning a purebred operation. He spent much of his time as a junior exhibitor attending all the AIJCA Junior National Show & Leadership Conferences. Each year from Wichita Falls, Texas in 2007 to Saint Paul, Minnesota in 2015, he notoriously travelled with the "Illinois Crew." He never missed one. Even when his time as a junior exhibitor was up, he continuously returned and never missed the opportunity to help.

Not only was he an active participant in the breed, but Alex truly was a mentor to others in the barn. He was always taking time to help anyone who needed it. In doing so, Alex set a great example of hard work and dedication. With the goal of curating a show heifer herd for junior exhibitors, Alex worked hard to set up an operation that would give juniors a similar experience to his. He spent much time working with and helping friends and customers to make sure everyone had what they needed to do well.

Growing up, his family marketed cattle across the country in states such as Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kentucky, and Tennessee. As he got older, Alex continued to grow his herd of Charolais and Simmental and was very proud to participate in the Embryos on Snow sale in 2021. In less than 20 years, Alex and his parents Paul and Sharlene engineered what is now Bullard Cattle Company.

"In his short time managing his family's beef cattle operation, Alex made great strides in moving the program forward. Alex was a catalyst and an innovator." – Dale Bertsche, co-owner of LaFraise Farms.

Alex Bullard had a true passion for cattle and business. Each step he took was toward what he had envisioned for Bullard Cattle Company, however, there was one thing he had a greater passion for, family. It was said that the only thing he loved more than cattle were his wife Kellie, and their two young children, Halle and Krew. Alex had a drive to ensure a successful operation for his family's future and a loving environment to raise them in. His presence was felt by everyone, and his absence was noticed by many whenever he was not in the barn and certainly feels greater now.

The time and energy he would put into his own cattle at shows was just a small portion of everything he would do. Alex made a point to help others at the same time and make sure their cattle were well cared for too. Hesitation to help was never an occurrence when it came to Alex Bullard.

"During the 2013 Junior Nationals, my husband had to leave early. Alex offered to help us get our cattle home. He jumped in our truck and trailer after the show and drove through the night to get our cattle home. After a long week, he never hesitated to offer his assistance." – Susan Creasey, Creasey Charolais.

A catalyst, an innovator, a visionary. All words that have been used to describe Alex, but they just scratch the surface. Alex passed away on June 10, 2021, traveling home from checking his cattle. The lasting impression of his life is felt amongst many, and his presence is certainly missed. However, the reminder of how he lived his life will continue to live on through everyone who hears his story.

Show Dedicattee

Evelyn Gay Lawton Duhon

"We all come from the past, and ought to know what went into our making, and to know that all life is a braided cord of humanity, stretching up from a long time gone." - Russel Baker, The Lawton Ranch – A Grand Legacy.

This quote holds a much larger meaning that guides one's mind to ponder what makes us who we are. There is not much to question when it comes to figuring out what the late Mrs. Evelyn Gay Lawton Duhon was made of. The legend of her family and the life that she led are clear answers to her character and the story she left behind.

Dating back to 1930, her grandfather J.A. "Pally" Lawton founded Lawton Ranch, alongside their demanding rice farm and notable quarter horse herd. Pally started relatively small with a purchase of two hundred head of commercial cattle, then buying into a small herd of registered Brahman cattle. Along with this, there were 100 head of Brahman cattle handpicked to begin a "show string".

Pally went on to be one of the first of five pioneer Charolais breeders in the United States. He introduced Charolais cattle to Southwest Louisiana in the early 1940's with his purchase of Quetzal, 1939 Mexico City Champion Bull. These were the first steps taken toward building what is now the revolutionary Lawton Ranch.

Evelyn Gay came from a long "braided cord" of hard work, perseverance, and selflessness. When it came time for her to take the reins, she knew what it would take to continue growing her family's legacy. By the nineties, she had regenerated "J.A. Lawton & Sons" herd into today's JVS Cattle Company.

Her grandfather's original "show string" would have a significant impact on Evelyn Gay as she continued to build JVS. Because of these fond memories, she would soon find her way to Charolais shows and events across the country.

The JVS show string acquired numerous accolades, including multiple Top 10 American-International Charolais Association (AICA) Show Bulls, Sires, Females, and Dams of the Year. JVS Cattle Company also established five Roll of Excellence (ROE) Sires including their walking herd sire, BJCF Bar J Y66. Her National Champion Bull, GJL Ruidoso 3082, became a staple memory for her and many others involved with his winnings.

"Rod Smith (her son-in-law) and I both told her she should sell him, but she didn't, and he just got better and better throughout the summer. That was the thrill of a lifetime for her—National Champion Bull!" - Larry Ludeke, owner of Bar J Livestock.

With family and close friends in tow, she was always willing to travel and socialize wherever Charolais cattle were found. Not only had Mrs. Evelyn Gay distinguished herself and JVS Cattle Company across the United States, but she was well recognized amongst Charolais breeders worldwide. Due to her attendance to the World Charolais Congress in France and Mexico, her interest in seedstock genetics grew.

It could be said that her love for the Charolais breed grew due to her involvement from an early age, but even in her later years, she was as involved as ever. Evelyn Gay made sure to play a large hand when it came to giving back. This is felt in her numerous donations and contributions, but primarily through The Russell W. Ludeke – Harold Christopher Truax II Memorial Award.

"It is a scholarship that awards applicants entering the veterinary or medical profession and they must be or have relation to an American-International Charolais Association member. This was just one of many things that Mrs. Evelyn Gay did to help the young people involved in this breed." - Alan & Samantha Leifeste, Leifeste Cattle Services

Evelyn Gay loved the Charolais breed and the people in it, especially the junior members. Since 2013, she has taken part in donating meals for the National Show and Sale, purchasing artwork and other auction items, joining syndicates to raise money for donation heifers, and even purchasing the ACF Donation Heifer at the 2021 Cattlemen's Congress 42nd National Sale for her first born granddaughter, Scarlett. However, her impact was much more than monetary, it is one that will remain in everyone's hearts forever.

Mrs. Evelyn Gay Lawton Duhon passed away on March 12, 2021. Her legacy touched many lives across the world. Endless generosity and genuine care for others are just a few traits that went into making her the pioneer she became. A woman with grit, tenacity, and passion will not be forgotten.

"Why do you love the Charolais breed?"

"Because of people like Mrs. Evelyn Gay. I hope to be a special Charolais raiser like a special lady named Evelyn Gay Lawton Duhon."

– Landree Leifeste, 9-year-old AIJCA member.
